Dear Brethren,

Here is a special letter from our missionary in Venezuela, Bro. Luis Corrales.

Dear pastor and church.

It is a blessing to share the word of God in this beautiful country. On this occasion I ask for your prayers for my wife Zilenia de Corrales, who has been diagnosed with cancer since last year. Despite living in Venezuela during so much scarcity and the current economic crisis, the hand of God Almighty has manifested itself in our lives.

We currently need $5,000 to pay for chemotherapy treatment, medical tests, medications, and vitamin supplements. Any love offering will be of great help to us, I ask for your support for my wife in this economic need please.

Your donation will not only benefit us financially but will also continue to positively impact the lives of those whom we serve. We are committed to using your contributions to preserve the life of my wife and continue to carry out projects and goals that align with our mission and vision for our community in the church.

I thank you in advance for your support for my family. God bless you.
