

the Scott Family Missionaries in Japan

November 2025

Hello pastors and praying friends,

I'm so excited to be able to give you an update on all the Lord has done over the past couple of months. It has been an absolute roller coaster ride, and we've seen the Lord do a lot since we arrived back here in Japan. I want to thank you all for your prayers and support for us as we traveled back and as we've gotten resettled in here in Japan.

In September, while we were back in the States, we had the opportunity to be with a handful of our supporting churches, ranging all the way from Michigan down to Georgia. It was such a blessing to reconnect and see how the Lord has been at work. Some of these churches have grown so much they've moved into larger buildings of their own, which is a wonderful blessing.

In October, my family and I traveled back to Texas and prepared to return to Japan. We said our last goodbyes and are so grateful for how the Lord blessed and protected us through all our travels on this previous furlough. Upon arriving back in Japan, we jumped right into preparations for our big annual Apple Party. Even with a few folks out sick, we had a great turnout of 10 people. And what really encouraged us was seeing those visitors head straight to our bulletin board afterward, adding future events to their calendars because they genuinely want to come back. That kind of response is a real encouragement and shows how God is at work.

As we look ahead, I do have a couple of prayer requests. Just like in America, Christmas is a special time here and a unique opportunity to share the gospel. Many people in Japan celebrate Christmas in their own way, and they're often more open to visiting a church to learn what it's all about. Please pray that we'll have many visitors and that God will open their hearts, make them curious about the Bible, and give us opportunities to help them come to know Christ.

Thank you again for your continued prayers and support. We're grateful for each of you and excited to see what the Lord will do in the months ahead.

Striving together,

James, Rebekah, Joshua, Lily, and Daisy Scott
