Dear Praying Friends,

November-December 2025

As we close out another year, we are humbled by God's continued kindness and your faithful partnership that sustains this ministry. Your prayers and generous support make it possible for us to serve our missionary families, and we're thankful to share a few highlights from these final months.

November began with Jeremy preaching at a mission conference in Pennsylvania, challenging believers to step into the harvest fields. A special family moment came when Esther, Bethany, and Judah played the piano, cello, and flute for our niece's wedding—a sweet time of serving together and celebrating with loved ones. The rest of the month was spent at the home office—helping missionaries with their needs, processing new applications, handling correspondence, and tackling IT and maintenance tasks to keep things running smoothly. We ended the month celebrating Thanksgiving with family in Georgia, a sweet time of reflection and gratitude for God's many blessings.

December brought more encouragement. The Peeler family (who serve with WWNTBM to assist ministries) came and blessed us tremendously by taking on several overdue maintenance tasks around the office. We enjoyed working alongside them—what a relief and joy to have help from fellow servants! We also conducted a new missionary interview in Indiana for a family approved to serve in Cameroon. (If your church is interested in hosting them or learning more, please reach out—we'd love to connect you!) We wrapped up the year with a special Christmas spent with family, giving thanks for the greatest gift of all—our Savior.

Prayer Requests/Praises:

- Praise the Lord for new missionaries to Liberia and Cameroon, and for the new applicants currently in process—God is raising up laborers!
- Praise God for another new supporting church—He continues to provide in His perfect timing.
- Pray for more missionaries and laborers to enter the harvest fields.
- Pray for strength and wisdom as we plan trips, conferences, and ministry for the coming year.
- Pray for a couple of our missionaries who are facing struggles right now—ask the Lord to give them grace, encouragement, and clear direction.

We are deeply grateful to each of you, our supporting churches, for your steadfast prayers and financial partnership. You are essential teammates in the Great Commission, and we truly could not do this without you. Together, we are reaching the world for Christ!

With Grateful Hearts,
