Great Investment Opportunity:

I would like to share with you a great investment opportunity. I am now working with some new investment opportunities where the results are amazing and I wouldn't want you to miss out. The investment that I am speaking of is investing in eternity, investing in the lives of others. With this opportunity like other investments, the short term results can seem doubtful, but it is in the long term that you really begin to enjoy the dividends. As a missionary, the greatest joy and sometimes frustration is investing in the lives of others. It is a great joy to see someone's life change as they grow in the Word. This is not just a responsibility or investment opportunity for missionaries or pastors, but for every believer. This could start when you share the gospel with someone and they trust Christ as Savior. Then you help them to grow and mature in their spiritual lives as you walk with them and help them apply the word of God in their daily lives. When they stumble or maybe even want to turn back, you are there to help keep them on track. The end goal and your return on investment, is seen when a person becomes a mature believer and no longer needs help to continue forward, and they begin to help someone else in their spiritual walk. So, I would like to ask you to pray for the men and women's lives that we are investing in and to challenge you for this new year to begin investing now. Who are you investing in? Who is your disciple? Lord willing next year this time you will be able to point to someone that you can say is your disciple.

Blessed Beyond Measure:

Not only did we have a great time celebrating Thanksgiving in November, but this past month we had a wonderful time celebrating Christ's birth with our family. Not only were we able to celebrate with both Beth's family and mine, but it was really special to celebrate our granddaughter, Althea's first Christmas. Although she is still really small, we had a great time with her, Greg and Grace. We also were able to take some really good family Christmas pictures that we will treasure for many years to come. You can see some of those if you go to my wife Beth's Facebook page.

Still Giving Thanks:

Although Thanksgiving has passed we are and continue to be very thankful for the Lord's many blessings for so many things. One of those things is the blessing that many are to us and the ministry in Bolivia with special Christmas offerings. Not only is it a blessing to us personally but it allows us to be a blessing to the men and families that are serving in Bolivia by being able to share with them also a special Christmas offering. Thank you for your sacrifice and love for the work of the Lord. Your sacrifice is not in vain.

Prayer Requests:

1. Pray for the Bolivian government as they deal with strikes and blockades because of changes they are making.
2. Pray for us and the students as we start another semester at the Vision School of Missions.
3. Pray for us as we start another busy travel time for the next couple months, visiting churches.
