DECEMBER 2025 PRAYER LETTER

December is always a very busy month. It is filled with so many different opportunities to share the birth of Christ with the people around us. This year was extra special for us though, because for the first time in the 22 years we have been in Moldova, we had family (Emily's parents) come to visit us for the holidays. Hannah also was able to fly back to Moldova during her Christmas break from college at PCC. We enjoyed lots of time together as a family making Christmas cookies, decorating the tree, playing games, and celebrating the birth of our Savior.

Besides spending time as a family, it is always a joy to be able to serve together here in Moldova. Hannah, Josiah, and Tabitha helped set up and run our children's Christmas outreach program along with a few other teens from the youth group. Please pray for the 40 children that came out and heard about the true meaning of Christmas. Our prayer is that through these kinds of outreaches, families will be reached with the Gospel. Our children also jumped in and helped prepare the tables and the auditorium for a special Christmas fellowship for the women of the church and their unsaved friends. It was a true blessing to have Emily's mom - who had been a missionary in Belgium while Emily was growing up – share a special Christmas devotional with the ladies. Emily's father was able to share his testimony and challenge the men of the church.

Another big part of our ministry, this past year, have been the teens that are attending our weekly youth meeting. Daniel took the opportunity, at our special Christmas party that we had with them, to again share the gospel with them and to challenge them to give their lives to Christ. Please continue to pray for these teens. Most of them come from Orthodox families, but we are excited to see how God is working in their lives.

Thank you for your prayers and support for us as a family and for the ministry God has given us here in Hincesti, Moldova. Please pray that we will continue to serve our Lord and Savior faithfully in the year to come.
